MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Hugh E. Price
Director of Personnel

SUBJECT: Family Day

1. The Agency's Family Day on 26 September 1987 was quite successful. It was estimated that 4000 employees and family members visited the Headquarters Building, while 550 visited outlying buildings. The cafeteria prepared 1500 meals to serve 700 families and the EAA Store sold $2700 worth of merchandise.

2. The families that visited Headquarters were treated to many excellent exhibits and displays. The Office of Information Technology, in particular, had excellent hands-on computer displays which allowed both children and adults the opportunity to gain greater appreciation of the information capabilities which are available. Representatives from the Office of Personnel gave out literature and were available to answer questions on travel, insurance, retirement, and recruitment.

3. There were a number of excellent publications that were given as hand-outs. The most popular were the unclassified version of "Studies in Intelligence" and "The Constitution of the United States of America," bicentennial commemorative edition, printed by Printing and Photography Division. The picture of the Headquarters compound signed by you for Family Day was another item that was well received by employees and family members.
